#survivingocialmedia	Allison Allen
This Breakout Session will be about navigating Social Media as a Christian. We will discuss positive uses of social media that glorify God: witnessing, encouraging others, sharing fun in our lives. And we will talk about ways that we misuse social media that can damage our witness and promote a false intimacy with others. This breakout session will also give some introductory education on unfamiliar social media apps and safety tips for your kids and teens.	Allison is a NAMB Church Planter's Wife in Charlestown, IN. She is married to Shea Allen and they have one son, Jude, who is 6 years old. She is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, working in private practice at Beechland Counseling Ministry, in Louisville, KY.
Being in the World but Not of the World	Debbie Whidden
Have you ever struggled with finding a balance of not coming off hypocritical, but also really wanting to share what the Bible says about some hot topics we face in society today? As Christians we are a minority and our views can bring up arguments. It can also make us want to become hermits and shy away from people who don't share our beliefs. This break-out will walk you through what the Bible says about what it means to live in the world while not being part of it. We can live the victorious life in Christ while still being a great influence to the world around us.	Debbie Whidden has served alongside her husband, Mitch, in ministry for over 20 years. God has recently moved them to Cecilia, KY where he is the pastor and she leads the women's ministry. Debbie is passionate about teaching women how to live, love, and serve like Christ has planned for their life. She has three adult children who are all married, and in her free time owns and runs a clothing boutique.
Being the Church Rather than Doing Church	Linda Clark
Join us as we discuss how we can move from doing church, to being the church God wants to use to draw the world back to Himself. Our session will focus on how scripture and practical ideas can help us outlive our lives and “be” rather than “do.”	Linda lives in Sellersburg and enjoys writing, reading and bargain hunting. Her passion is equipping women to led and influence others with God’s love.
Bible Journaling	Mary Schuck
An introduction to Bible journaling/illustration. Be encouraged to think creatively as you meditate on God's word. Learn easy techniques of illustration that even the artistically challenged can use. You'll learn what works and what doesn't. There will even be ideas to illustrate scripture without covering the text. Materials will be provided for a fun, interactive guide to Bible journaling.	Mary Schuck is the Assistant Manager at LifeWay Christian Store in Indianapolis. The other half of her time is spent assisting her husband, Greg, with plans for their next motorcycle adventure, designing new ways to make their two-year-old granddaughter laugh, and overseeing two large and unruly dogs. In between these blessed moments she can be found singing praises in a choir or two or expressing a persistent idea through various creative pursuits.

Biblical Counsel	Cynthia Scott
How can we offer hope to a dying world, as well as encourage and help those who are broken find healing according to scripture? "There are many sorts of broken hearts, and Christ is good at healing them all..." Charles Haddon Spurgeon	Cynthia A Scott LMFT Member of American Association of Christian Counseling. Therapist at Elizabethtown Partners in counseling, licensed in marriage and family therapy in the state of KY. Mother of three grown sons, grandmother of two granddaughters and one grandson. Most importantly I am a believer in love with Christ whose heart's desire is to serve Him in whatever capacity He calls me.
Contentment " Suck it up Buttercup"	Kimberly Bishop
Do you find yourself always looking forward to the next stage in life? Are you constantly saying, "If only I..." Does the list of self-talk never seem to stop? In this breakout we will learn how to live in the now, not for tomorrow, what the old phrase "Suck it up buttercup" really means, and most importantly what God's word has to say about being content.	Kimberly is the fun half of Troy Bishop her husband of 32 years. Together they have served 31 years in ministry. They are currently serving at Sunnycrest Baptist Church in Marion, Indiana. Kimberly serves as the women's ministry leader, Youth on Mission leader, and associational WMU director for Miami Baptist Association. Because of her own past, God has given Kimberly a heart and passion for ministering to hurting and broken women. Her greatest joy is to give women a glimpse of what God can do in their lives!
Do I Have to Pray or Do I Get to Pray?	Mary Cox
Which One Best Describes My Prayer Life? We will explore what it means to have intimacy through prayer as we look at several things that prayer is: "The first step in knowing Jesus;" "A conversation between child and Father;" "A table for two;" "Allowing God access to our needs;" "Releasing the power of God;" "The soul on its knees;" "A direct line to world evangelization;" and "an audience of one."	Mary Cox has been in ministry alongside her husband, Bobby Cox, for over forty years; they have three grown children, eight grandchildren, and two great grandchildren. Mary is a graduate of Campbellsville University; and she has been commissioned by the North American Mission Board. She and Bobby now serve in the Southeast Region of Indiana where she is available to assist in the development of women's ministries, retreats and conferences on spiritual growth, women's life issues, and missions.
Doing Life Together: Mentoring Women in the Church	Allison Kinion
Are you making the most of opportunities to mentor other women? What can you do to begin a mentoring ministry? How can your local church set a platform for women to fulfill the Titus 2 command to mentor? Let's talk about the nuts and bolts of how to "Do Life Together" in an intentional way.	Allison has served as the Director of Women's Missions and Ministry for the State Convention of Baptists in Indiana since 2008. She also leads the student ministry and sings on the worship team at Calvary Baptist Church, where her husband Roger has been Senior Pastor since 2005. She has been married to Roger for 18 years and has 2 children - Hannah -15 and Ruston - 12. Originally from Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Allison has been working in vocational church ministry for more than 20 years, having served churches of all sizes in Texas, South Carolina, Alabama and Indiana. In her free time she enjoys cooking, smocking, canning and spending time with her family.

Finding Hope After Loss	Lara Williams
Have you experienced loss? Loss of a dream. Loss of a plan. Loss of a loved one. Loss of a relationship. When we experience loss, our hearts are vulnerable to hopelessness. And hopelessness is fertile ground for the enemy's lies. In this session we will talk about finding hope after loss. Because in Christ, hope remains our inheritance.	Speaker and author, Lara Williams lives in central North Carolina with her loud and beautiful family. You can connect with Lara online or find out about her Bible study resources by visiting her website at www.LaraGWilliams.com.
Leading Porcupines and Skunks	Chris Conrades
Ladies let's be honest. Leading is hard and sometimes certain people make it harder. At other times we are the ones making things difficult for others. In this unique breakout we will discuss leadership styles, communication, different personality types, and what God has to say about leading the "porcupines and skunks" in our life.	Chris is a church planter's wife and homeschool mom of four from Richmond, IN. She wears many hats and leads in multiple ministries including worship ministry, women's ministry, and youth missions. Chris serves as an associational WMU director and has recently written curriculum for Girls in Action. One of her favorite verses is Romans 12:11! She loves to make new friends so come introduce yourself!!
Marriage Panel	Jeannine McNeil
Are you interested in creating a long lasting marriage legacy that your children and grandchildren can learn from? What are some of those mistakes or pitfalls that you'd like to avoid in your own marriage? How do two different people with very different upbringing ever make it to 10, 20 or 50 years of marriage? Come hear from some women, not experts but fellow travelers on this adventure called marriage! Marriage is a beautiful gift that God has given us so let's always continue learning how to make it better! If you would like to send a question to be discussed by the panel just email your question to jm4obu74@gmail.com!	Jeannine is the wife of SCBI's Executive Director Steve McNeil. She enjoys serving alongside her husband in the many ministry opportunities they encounter in our state and in the broader SBC life! Her passion is connecting with other pastors wives and planning events to encourage, equip and strengthen their marriages and their ministry life! They also enjoy traveling around the country networking other ministry opportunities. They have two adult children (Melissa and Michael) and three precious grandchildren (Madison, Jackson and Mason).
Pressing or Precious: Biblical Time Management	Dana James
When asked, "How are you doing?" we often hear ourselves (and others) say, "I'm so busy, we have so much going on! I just cannot keep up with everything I have to do. I'm exhausted!" So many of us are overwhelmed by how much we have to do and how little time we have to do it in. Let's get some practical tools to help us focus on the precious and important as opposed to constantly doing the pressing and urgent.	Dana's heart is to connect women with God's heart through the teaching of His Word. After being a stay-at-home mom, Dana taught in colleges in Texas and Tennessee and provided training for businesses and industries. Currently she works at Pier 1 where she loves to connect with women from all over the world! Dana gets excited about meaningful, honest conversation, celebrating small victories, and spending time with her incredible husband, family, and friends.

Spiritual Warfare	Laine Elam
How is our spiritual walk affected by spiritual warfare? In this breakout we will go into detail about the tools God has given us to battle spiritual warfare.	Laine is a faithful member of Old Town Hill Baptist Church in Muncie, Indiana, her hometown. She teaches an adult Sunday school class and leads the women's ministry. She is married to a Muncie City Police officer on the SWAT team and Drug Unit, which is spiritual warfare in itself! Laine has three beautiful children, Caleb age 23, Nathan age 19, and Izzy age 8. She also has a blended family which includes three stepdaughters, Alexis, Sydney, and Chloe. Laine has a huge passion for prayer and God has led her to start two targeted prayer ministries, one involving lost drug abusers in Muncie and the other with police officers. She also serves as the SCBI Prayer Coordinator.
What Bread is to the Body, Christ is to the Soul	Tracy Richards
John 6:27          "Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal."          Are you spiritually needy or spiritually hungry          One is death one is life. Come and be encouraged that Christ wants to enlarge your appetite for His will and purposes.	Tracy and her family have served with the IMB to Thailand for the past 15 years. Before that they served the local church in youth and music ministries in Arkansas. They are currently on stateside and are enjoying being with their families and speaking in churches. They have six children three are grown and gone and three living at home.
When All Seems Lost: A Creative Refugee Simulation	Allison Kinion
By the end of 2016, 65.6 million people were forcibly displaced as a result of persecution, conflict, violence or human rights violations. One person becomes displaced every 3 seconds. The plight of refugees often remains unknown. For all the challenges they leave behind, new challenges await them. Come experience a simulation that will open your eyes to the great needs of refugees and learn about what the church can do to make a difference!	Allison has served as the Director of Women's Missions and Ministry for the State Convention of Baptists in Indiana since 2008. She also leads the student ministry and sings on the worship team at Calvary Baptist Church, where her husband Roger has been Senior Pastor since 2005. She has been married to Roger for 18 years and has 2 children - Hannah -15 and Ruston - 12. Originally from Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Allison has been working in vocational church ministry for more than 20 years, having served churches of all sizes in Texas, South Carolina, Alabama and Indiana. In her free time she enjoys cooking, smocking, canning and spending time with her family.
When the Ones You Love Don't Love Jesus...	Leah Pratt
Living our lives for Christ is already a challenge, but when those closest to us (spouse/family/friends) are lost, both our growth in Him and our witness to them become targets of Satan. Come hear how we might better walk in God's ways, truly love our loved ones as Christ does, and witness well in both word and deed. We can find hope, wisdom, and strength in God's Word and in His plan for their lives.	Leah Pratt has an MDiv from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. She has ministered to teens for 20 years and counseled youth &amp; families in crisis for 12. She now practices biblical counseling, works as a high school Bible teacher at Heritage Christian School in Indy, and leads the youth and worship ministries at Calvary Heights Baptist Church in Martinsville. Leah's greatest passions are loving her husband, discipling young people, and blogging at journeytogodly.com.
