

Transformed

Heart. Soul. Mind. Mission.

Breakout Times

Friday Early Bird	Friday Afternoon	Saturday Morning	Saturday Afternoon
1 @ 9:30 am	1 @ 1:30 pm	4 @ 8:30 am	7 @ 1:00 pm
2 @ 10:30 am	2 @ 2:30 pm	5 @ 9:30 am
	3 @ 3:30 pm	6 @ 10:30 am

Breakout Sessions

Session #	EB 1	EB 2	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Are You a 'Copter' Mom or Grandmother? - Dana James			X						X
Caring for Elderly Loved Ones - DeAnna Downey				X		X		X
Forgive and Forget? - Lori Jones			X		X				X
God Doesn't Mess with You! - Leighann McCoy		X		X				X
Going Deeper With God - Dana James	X				X			X
It's Not About You: Leading Women to Reach Beyond Themselves - Allison Kinion		X					X		X
Living a Life of Servanthood Through Hospitality - Jennifer Whitaker			X		X		X
Living in Your Giftedness - Kristi Horn			X		X			X
Love Outside the Box - Vanessa Fletcher	X						X	X
Making Quality Connections & Building Meaningful Friendships - Terra Haisley			X			X			X
Ministry on the Go - Linda Clark		X			X	X			X
Missions and You - Terri* IMB missionary	X			X			X
Pretty Please! Finding Contentment Even When God's Answer is No - Debi Cline				X			X		X
Speak Up...Or Keep It Shut? - Leah Pratt		X	X		X	X
Spiritual Selfie - Keily Hill				X		X	X
Stretching Your Money - Sarah Greene	X			X				X

Are You A 'Copter' Mom or Grandmother?	Dana James
We are told in 2 Timothy 3 that, "There will be very difficult times." What are you doing now to prepare your children/grandchildren for these "very difficult times?" More than likely you are good about protecting your kids, but what about preparing them? We will be challenged and encouraged as we discuss these and other pertinent questions.	Dana's heart is to connect women with God's heart through the teaching of His Word. After being a stay-at-home mom, Dana taught in colleges in Texas and Tennessee and provided training for businesses and industries. Currently she works at Pier 1 where she loves to connect with women from all over the world! Dana gets excited about meaningful, honest conversation, celebrating small victories, and spending time with her incredible family and friends. She was not raised in a Christian home yet is a pastor's wife, a pastor's mother, and a pastor's mother-in-law...a testament to the grace and mercy of God!
Caring for Elderly Loved Ones	DeAnna Downey
This session is dedicated to caregivers who want more information on places that can help them as they care for their loved ones. It will include discussing Biblical counsel and support group encouragement to the caregivers.	DeAnna is a retired NAMB missionary and former pastor's wife. She is now learning and growing in Christ as she strives to help her elderly parents in their golden years. May God bless all those caregivers who find themselves in this situation.
Forgive and Forget?	Lori Jones
Navigating relationships after choosing to forgive can be tricky! How do I now relate with the person who has offended me? Does this mean that we have to be best friends? And what if I am the one who did the offending? Can we really have a fresh start in our relationship? We will cover these questions and more during our time together. Come along with us to learn what the Lord has to say about forgiving and forgetting!	Lori has been married for 36 years and currently lives in Rockville, Indiana where her husband serves as pastor. She enjoys leading women to know the Lord better through the study of His Word, and her desire is to see their lives changed in ways that impact their families and community with the Gospel. Whenever possible, she loves to invest time in the lives of four special people who call her Nana.
God Doesn't Mess with You!	Leighann McCoy
Walk away from this conference knowing beyond a shadow of a doubt that God hears and answers your prayers. Learn 8 reasons God makes us wait and 6 things to remember while you're waiting.	Leighann is an author and speaker. Her books include "Spiritual Warfare for Women" and "Oh God, Please, Teach Me to Pray." Her most recent book, "Taking Responsibility for the Choices You Make" released in February. Leighann serves as the prayer and family minister at Thompson Station Church where her husband Tom is senior pastor.

Going Deeper With God	Dana James
Sometimes I become complacent in my relationship with God. Stagnant. Dry. As a result, I am powerless. Weak. Stuck. This is sin. I long to know Him and the power of His resurrection, but what about the fellowship of His sufferings? I long to go deeper with Him and know Him more! Do you? Come, let us encourage one another to grasp the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus our Lord!	Dana's heart is to connect women with God's heart through the teaching of His Word. After being a stay-at-home mom, Dana taught in colleges in Texas and Tennessee and provided training for businesses and industries. Currently she works at Pier 1 where she loves to connect with women from all over the world! Dana gets excited about meaningful, honest conversation, celebrating small victories, and spending time with her incredible family and friends. She was not raised in a Christian home yet is a pastor's wife, a pastor's mother, and a pastor's mother-in-law...a testament to the grace and mercy of God!
It's Not About You: Leading Women to Reach Beyond Themselves	Allison Kinion
Women today aren't content to simply hear about others making a difference. They want to be a part! Does your church's women's ministry have an outward, Great Commission focus? Let's talk about ways you can lead women to reach beyond themselves and make a difference for Christ. Hear ways the women of your church can be mobilized to impact women on the other side of the world as well as those in your community.	Allison serves as the Director of Women's Missions and Ministry for the State Convention of Baptists in Indiana. She also leads the student ministry and sings on the worship team at Calvary Baptist Church in Greenfield, where her husband Roger has been Senior Pastor since 2005. Roger and Allison met at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. They have been married for 18 years and have 2 children – Hannah(14) and Ruston(11). Originally from Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Allison has worked in vocational church ministry for more than 20 years. In her free time she enjoys cooking, smocking, canning and spending time with her family.
Living in Your Giftedness	Kristi Horn
God has designed you with a unique personality and special gifts for a great purpose. In this interactive workshop we'll help you discover how you are "wired" and gifted. Then we'll explore ways that you can enjoy living in your giftedness to fulfill God's purpose for you as a woman in this world.	Kristi Horn is married to John and has served with him in ministry for 34 years. They have two adult daughters, Angela and Rebecca. In addition to being a busy pastor's wife and mother, Kristi has actively served in ministries in her church and community, and has had a career in the marketplace throughout most of her marriage. She enjoys working with women's groups, and is currently volunteering with the Ezra and Nehemiah Houses, a ministry for women who have recently been released from incarceration.
Living a Life of Servanthood Through Hospitality	Jennifer Whitaker
In this breakout session you will NOT be bored! This session will be interactive and we, as a group, will discuss the life of serving through hospitality and what God's Word teaches. Together we will learn from one another and (prayerfully through the Sweet Holy Spirit) mature in our walk with Jesus and be encouraged to be all that God has called each of us, individually, to be!	I am a simple, 41-yr-old, country girl that loves the Lord and is blessed to be married to a Godly man and have 4 (almost-perfect) children. Other than my family, my passion is to love on teenagers. If I have a spare moment you will find me running:)

Love Outside the Box	Vanessa Fletcher
Have you ever tried to tell your husband that you love him, and ended up thinking he must be hearing in Swahili, while you're speaking Swedish? Have you ever been confused by communications that should have been loving, but somehow left you both unsatisfied. In this fun and informative workshop, we will discuss Gary Chapman's "5 Love Languages", help you figure out which you and your spouse speak, and get you back to speaking the same language. Start speaking each other's Languages; feel more loved; and get ready for your best relationship ever!	Vanessa Fletcher is the wife of Pastor Reginald B. Fletcher, Living Word Baptist Church in Indianapolis. She is Co-Counselor with Pastor Fletcher for couples desiring marriage. She is on assignment as Center Director at Day Early Learning Lilly Family Center where she is able to serve 74 children (infants-five year olds) and fifteen staff. Vanessa is a woman that truly believes in the power of prayer. She often ministers to the women of the congregation in a loving and gentle way, but is honest as she points them to the Word as a guide for their life. Vanessa attempts to live by her favorite scripture, Philippians 4:4, "Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say Rejoice!"
Making Quality Connections & Building Meaningful Friendships	Terra Haisley
Technology has increased the options we have to reach out to others but it has not changed our God-designed need to connect in a meaningful way. It's the quality of our connections, not the quantity, which matters most. In this session we will discuss what the Bible has to say about friendship, and share practical tips and tools for building meaningful relationships.	Terra Haisley is a wife and mom overwhelmed by God's grace in her life. She serves with her husband of 23 years, Greg Haisley, as church planters at Integris Community Church in Albany, Indiana. They have three children, two married and one finishing her Junior year in high school. Terra works in the local schools as an Occupational Therapy Assistant and leads worship at her church. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, curling up with a good book, and getting out in nature.
Ministry on the Go	Linda Clark
Join this session for busy women who want to engage in ministry but have limited time. Understanding the importance of ministering to others can lead to creating your own special ministry. Think smart and love loud! Leave this fast-paced workshop with a box full of easy to do ideas.	Linda lives in Sellersburg, is married and has 3 grown children. She has led seminars and spoken at retreats and events internationally and loves to help women grow as leaders. She is the author of two books for women leaders and one on healthy self-esteem. A fourth book on leadership will be released Fall 2017. Her hobbies are reading, tag sales, and photographing old cemeteries.
Missions and You	Terri * (last name withheld for security)
Come listen as Terri shares how you can be involved in missions all over the world, without leaving your country, or state or even your home. She has lived in East Asia for 20 years after someone said to her, "You should go to China," when she was a college senior. From her first thought, "Where's China?," to today has been a wonderful journey of praying, giving and going.	God can use anyone and in so many different ways. Terri ended up in China as a single woman sharing her life and her Lord for 10 years as a single. Now married for 10 years and raising two sons, what ministry looks like today is very different, but still a valuable part of the Kingdom. Like you, different phases bring different opportunities. Originally from Atlanta, Terri and her family call Knoxville home when they are not on the field in East Asia.

Pretty Please! Finding Contentment, Even When God's Answer is No.	Debi Cline
Have you ever found yourself asking God for a desire of your heart and then discovered the answer was not what you wanted to hear? We will explore how to find joyful contentment with God, even when the answer is no or not yet.	Debi has been serving as a Pastor's wife and high school teacher for over 20 years. Steve and Debi began their life together in Oklahoma and then traveled Kentucky and then Indiana with two kids and two dogs in tow. Her husband, Steve, is currently at Georgetown Southern Baptist Church in Georgetown, Indiana. They have two high school children and three middle school aged foster children. Over the years, they have learned to find the joy where God has placed them and roll with the challenges of an ever changing family life and ministry.
Speak Up...Or Keep It Shut?	Leah Pratt
Do you ever struggle with controlling your tongue? I know I sure do! The tongue is such a small part of the body, yet it influences SO much. Wanna' know when and how to confront, show concern, share opinions, etc.? It can be tough to act wisely in this area, but God gives grace and guidance. Join us to discuss the biblical ins-and-outs about when to speak up and when to keep it shut.	Leah Pratt has an MDiv from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. She has ministered to teens for 18 years and counseled families in crisis for 10. Leah works as a high school Bible teacher at Heritage Christian School in Indy and practices biblical counseling. She also leads the youth and worship ministries at Calvary Heights Baptist Church in Martinsville. Leah's greatest passions are loving her husband and discipling young women.
Spiritual Selfie	Keily Hill
How do we love people that do not look, think, believe or act like you? How do we love people when we do not agree with them? The Bible tells us to love. It doesn't mean that we are to love only those who are "righteous". It doesn't say to love only those who are equally yoked or only those who love us back. We are called to love regardless of how they act. We love because God is love and by doing so it might help them come to a relationship with God. Let's take a Spiritual selfie and see how many likes we get.	Keily is a member of Christian Community Baptist Church of Indianapolis. Keily is actively involved in Sunday school as a teacher, serves in the woman's ministry and mentors young woman and couples. She has a passion to share the gospel and encourage others to have a relationship with Jesus Christ, to seek and obey God. Her desire is to live holy and prove God's love is real no matter what life is like. She and her husband Keith have been married for 21 years and they have 4 children and 2 grandchildren.
Stretching Your Money	Sarah Green
As a recovering "free spender", I understand the mentality of being okay with just a dollar in your pocket and a whole pile of debt besides. However, over the last 10 years, God has grown me in realizing the importance and freedom that comes with responsible saving and spending. This breakout will give you a chance to hear lessons God has taught me along my journey as well as brainstorm practical changes you can make in order to become wiser with your own money.	Sarah grew up in North Carolina and studied Education at Cedarville University followed by Counseling at Dallas Theological Seminary. She is wife to Ray, lead pastor at Graceland Baptist Church, and mom to precious daughters, Addison and Emily. Sarah is passionate about living a life marked by loving God and people well.

